Deadline for classified advertisements 5pm Tuesday. Births, Marriages, Deaths, In Memoriam, 10am Wednesday.

Orders for insertion of advertisements in the Stratford upon Avon Herald are accepted subject to the following conditions:

- The placing of an order constitutes an assurance that the advertisement is legal, decent, honest and truthful complying with the British Codes of Advertising and Sales Promotion, with any relevant codes of practice and with the requirements of current legislation.
- Advertisement orders are issued by an advertising agency as a principal and must be on the agency's official form. When copy instructions not constituting an official order are used they shall be clearly marked "Copy instructions - no an order".
- The advertiser/advertising agency agrees to indemnify the publisher in respect of all costs, damages, or other charges falling upon the newspaper as a result of legal actions or threatened legal actions arising from the publication of the advertisement(s).
- In the event of any error, misprint or omission in the printing of an advertisement the publisher will either re-print the advertisement or relevant part of the advertisement as the case may be or make reasonable refund or adjustment to the cost. No re-insertion, refund or adjustment will be made where error, misprint or omission does not noticeably detract from the advertisement.
- In no circumstances shall the total liability of the publisher for any error, misprint or omission exceed (a) the amount of a full refund of any price paid to the publisher for the advertisement in connection with which liability arises or (b) the cost of a further or corrective advertisement of a like and standard reasonably comparable to that in connection with which liability arose.
- It is the responsibility of the advertiser/advertising agency to check the final insertion of any series of advertisements and verify the publisher's irretrievability of any error. The publisher assumes no responsibility for the repetition of errors unless notified by the advertiser.
- The publisher shall not be liable for any loss or damage (occasioned by any fire or partial fire) (however caused) of publication or distribution of any newspaper or edition in which any advertisement is scheduled to appear.
- The publisher reserves the right to:
 - cancel the order at any time by giving reasonable notice before the final insertion, but in that event the advertiser/advertising agency shall not be liable for payment of the difference (if any) between the rates of the same specified in the order and the actual price for the series of insertions which has appeared when the order is accepted.

1. An advertising agency may cancel any unaccepted part of an order without penalty in the event of the death of a client.
2. The copyright for all purposes in all artwork, copy and other material which the publisher or its employees have prepared, contributed to or received shall vest in the publisher.
3. The placing of an order by an advertiser, or an advertising agency or behalf of a client, constitutes an assurance that all necessary authority and permission has been secured in respect of the use in the advertisement(s) or personal representations of or purporting to be of living persons, and of references to the words attributed to living persons.
4. The advertiser's artwork, film and all other property is held at the advertiser's risk and should be by him against loss or damage from whatever cause. The publisher reserves the right to destroy without notice all artwork, film and other property which has been in his custody for six months from the date of its last appearance in an advertisement unless the advertiser has given instructions to the contrary.
5. Every advertiser will be made to forward replies to their notices in the advertiser's name, in possible other respects by the publisher, but the publisher accepts no liability in respect of any loss or damage alleged to have arisen through delay in forwarding or printing or forwarding such replies (howsoever caused). The advertiser authorises the publisher to return to its originator any communication which, in the opinion of the publisher, should not be delivered to the advertiser.
6. Box numbers are open for the receipt of bona-fide answers only and are not available for the distribution of trade catalogues, notices, original testimonials, goods, cards, stamps or payment of any kind and must not be misused.
7. The newspaper reserves the right to disclose the name and address of advertisers and/or agencies to the police, trading standards officers, or any other relevant authority and where the publisher in its sole discretion deems it reasonable, to other third parties.
8. The placing of an order for the insertion of an advertisement shall amount to an acceptance of the above conditions and any conditions stipulated on any agency's order form or otherwise by an agency or an advertiser shall be void insofar as they are in conflict with them.
