Deadline for classified advertisements 5pm Tuesday. Births, Marriages, Deaths, In Memoriam, 10am Wednesday.

Orders for insertion of advertisements in the Stratford upon Avon Herald are accepted subject to the following conditions:

- The placing of an order constitutes an assurance that the advertisement is legal, decent, honest and truthful and complies with the British Codes of Advertising and Sales Promotion, with any relevant codes of practice and with the requirements of current legislation.
- Advertisement orders are issued by an advertising agency as principal and must be on the agency's official form. When copy instructions not constituting an offer order are used they shall be clearly marked "Copy instructions - no an order".
- The advertising/inserting agency agrees to indemnify the publisher in respect of all costs, damages, or other charges falling upon the newspaper as a result of legal actions or threatened legal actions arising from the advertisement(s).
- In the event of any error, misprint or omission in the printing of an advertisement the publisher will offer to reprint the advertisement or relevant part of the advertisement as the case may be or make reasonable refund of or adjustment to the cost. No insertion, refund or adjustment will be made where error, misprint or omission does not materially detract from the advertisement.
- In all circumstances shall the total liability of the publisher for any error, misprint or omission be limited to the amount of a full rate of any price paid to the publisher for the advertisement in connection with which liability arises or (in the case of a further or corrective advertisement of a like and standard necessarily comparable to that in connection with which liability arose).
- It is the responsibility of the advertising/inserting agency to check the first insertion of any series of advertisements and notify the publisher immediately of any error. The publisher assumes no responsibility for the repetition of errors unless notified by the advertiser.
- The publisher shall not be liable for any loss or damage occasioned by any total or partial failure (whether caused by publication or distribution of any newspaper or edition in which an advertisement is scheduled to appear).
- The publisher reserves the right to:
  - cancel the order at any time by giving reasonable notice before the next insertion, but in that event the advertising/inserting agency shall not be liable for payment of the difference (if any) between the rates of the series specified in the order and the actual price for the series of insertions which has appeared when the order is stopped
  - make any alteration if considered necessary or desirable in an advertisement and to require artwork or copy to be amended to meet its needs.
  - An advertising agency may cancel any unaccepted part of an order without penalty in the event of the death of a client.
  - The copyright for all purposes in all artwork, copy and other material which the publisher or its employees have prepared, contributed to or reviewed shall vest in the publisher.
  - The placing of an order by an advertiser or an advertising agency or behalf of a client, constitutes an assurance that of necessary authority and permission has been secured in respect of the use in the advertisement(s) or personal representations of (or purporting to be of) living persons, and of references to the words attributed to living persons.
  - The advertiser's artwork, film and all other property linked at the advertiser's risk and should be by him against loss or damage from whatever cause. The publisher reserves the right to destroy without notice all artwork, film and other property which has been in his custody for six months from the date of its last appearance in an advertisement unless the advertiser has given instructions to the contrary.
  - Notice of cancellation will not be accepted by telephone.
  - Every advertiser will be made to forward replies to box numbers to the advertiser as soon as possible after receipt by the publisher, but the publisher accepts no liability in respect of any loss or damage alleged to have arisen through delay in forwarding or sending to forward such replies (whether caused). The advertiser authorises the publisher to return to its printer any communication which, in the opinion of the publisher, should not be delivered to the advertiser.
  - Box numbers are open for the receipt of box-number answers only and are not available for the distribution of their answering matter. Original business cards, goods, notes, stamps or payment of any kind must not be enclosed.
  - The newspaper reserves the right to disclose the name and address of advertisers and/or agencies to the police, trading standards officials, or any other relevant authority and, where the publisher in its sole discretion deems it reasonable, to other third parties.
  - The placing of an order for the insertion of an advertisement shall amount to an acceptance of the above conditions and any conditions stipulated on any agency's order form or elsewhere by an agency or an advertiser shall be void insofar as they are in conflict with these.

ORDERING BY POST
 Readers are advised not to send money to advertisers without first ascertaining that the goods advertised are readily available and that these goods are of the quality required.

BUSINESS OPPORTUNITIES AND FRANCHISES
 Readers are recommended to take appropriate professional advice before entering into obligations.
