Orders for insertion of advertisements in the Stratford upon Avon Herald are accepted subject to the following conditions:

- The placing of an order constitutes an assurance that the advertisement is legal, decent, honest and truthful complying with the British Codes of Advertising and Sales Promotion, with any relevant codes of practice and with the requirements of current legislation.
- Advertisement orders are issued by an advertising agency as a principal and must be on the agency's official form. When copy instructions not constituting an official order are used they shall be clearly marked "Copy instructions - no order".
- The advertising agency agrees to indemnify the publisher in respect of all costs, damages, or other charges falling upon the newspaper as a result of legal actions or threatened legal actions arising from the publication of the advertisement.
- In the event of any error, misprint or omission in the printing of an advertisement the publisher will either re-print the advertisement or relevant part of the advertisement as the case may be or make reasonable refund or adjustment to the cost. No re-insertion, refund or adjustment will be made where error, misprint or omission does not materially detract from the advertisement.
- In no circumstances shall the total liability of the publisher for any error, misprint or omission exceed (a) the amount of a full refund of any price paid to the publisher for the advertisement in connection with which liability arose or (b) the cost of a further or corrective advertisement of a type and standard reasonably comparable to that in connection with which liability arose.
- It is the responsibility of the advertiser/agency to check the first insertion of any series of advertisements and notify the publisher immediately of any errors. The publisher assumes no responsibility for the repetition of errors unless notified by the advertiser.
- The publisher shall not be liable for any loss or damage whatsoever by any fire or partial failure (however caused) of publication or distribution of any newspaper or edition in which any advertisement is scheduled to appear.
- The publisher reserves the right to:
 - cancel the order at any time by giving reasonable notice before the next insertion, but in that event the advertiser/agency shall not be liable for payment of the difference (if any) between the rate of the notice cancelled in the order and the actual price for the series of notices which has appeared when the order is stopped;
 - make any alteration it considers necessary or desirable in an advertisement and to require artwork or copy to be amended to meet its approval;
 - refuse to accept any order without penalty in the event of the death of the advertiser;
 - the copyright for all purposes in all artwork, copy and other material which the advertiser or its employees have originated, contributed to or received shall vest in the publisher;
 - the placing of an order by an advertiser, or an advertising agency or behalf of a client, constitutes an assurance that all necessary authority and permission has been secured in respect of the use in the advertisement of personal representations of or purporting to be of living persons, and of references to the words attributed to living persons;
 - the advertiser's artwork, film and other property is held at the advertiser's risk and should be by him against loss or damage from whatever cause. The publisher reserves the right to destroy without notice all artwork, film and other property which has been in his custody for six months from the date of its last appearance in an advertisement unless the advertiser has given instructions to the contrary;
 - Notice of cancellation will not be accepted by telephone;
 - Every advertiser will be made to forward replies to box numbers to the advertiser as soon as possible after receipt by the publisher, but the publisher accepts no liability in respect of any loss or damage alleged to have arisen through delay in forwarding or sending to forward such replies (howsoever caused). The advertiser authorises the publisher to return to its originator any communication which, in the opinion of the publisher, should not be delivered to the advertiser;
 - Box numbers are open for the receipt of bona fide answers only and are not available for the distribution of trade canvassing matter. Original testimonials, goods, cash, stamps or payment of any kind must not be enclosed;
 - The newspaper reserves the right to disclose the name and address of advertisers and/or agencies to the police, trading standards officers, or any other relevant authority and, where the publisher in its sole discretion deems it reasonable, to other third parties;
 - The placing of an order for the insertion of an advertisement that amounts to an acceptance of the above conditions and any conditions stipulated on any agency's order form or otherwise by an agency or an advertiser shall be void insofar as they are in conflict with them.
